NEW SUPERVISOR CURT HAGMAN HIRES LOCAL

Chino Hills, CA – Fourth District Supervisor Curt Hagman announced the recent hire of local residents to assist in his County and District Offices.

Eight staff members have been hired to support Supervisor Hagman in serving over 400,000 constituents in the cities of Upland, Montclair, Chino, Chino Hills, and Ontario.

Hagman enlisted Mike Spence to continue his role as Chief of Staff. Spence served 6 years as Hagman's COS in the State Assembly and has extensive experience as a public servant. He currently serves on the West Covina City Council; prior to his election to the council he was an active member on the West Covina Unified School District Board of Education.

Hagman also hired Ed Graham to serve as his new District Director. Graham is active in the Chino Hills community and was recently re-elected to the Chino Hills City Council. He previously worked as a Field Representative in Hagman's Assembly Office and served as Mayor.

Staff also includes: Douglas Boyd, Policy Advisor; Melissa Compani, Field Representative; Karen Haughey, Field Representative; Marjorie Rashidyan, Scheduler; Andrea Castaneda, Special Assistant; and Katherine Kolcheva, Policy Analyst.

Supervisor Hagman stated, "It is my pleasure to represent the Fourth District on the Board of Supervisors and I look forward to serving the community. I am proud to have fellow members of the community working on my team."

San Bernardino County is the largest county in the Continental United States and covers over 20,000 square miles. It is the 12th largest county in the United States by population – with over 2 million residents.

Supervisor Curt Hagman was elected to serve the Fourth District in the 2014 General Election. Prior to his election to the Board of Supervisors, Hagman served California's 55th Assembly District. He has been a longtime resident of Chino Hills with wife Grace and children, Jonathan and Elizabeth.
